At the time of acceptance into the Club, it is required in accordance with the Concession agreement between the city of PVE and the Club to show proof of residency in compliance with Article 4.1A of the Club by-laws:

All residents and property owners of the City of Palos Verdes Estates (the "City") accepted for membership will be accepted only with the understanding that their membership will terminate upon their ceasing to be residents of or property owners in the City (collectively referred to as "residents"), and the Club will, in fact, terminate such membership when such person ceases to be a resident and/or property owner in the City.

Important Notice: The initiation fees and/or dues amount is determined by the date of acceptance for membership, not the date the applicant is placed on a waiting list.
